

Debora Cain, RNC

Nursing Coordinator

COLLEGE OF THE HOLY CROSS

2007 NECHA LOUISE GAZZARA AWARD

As a valued member of the College of the Holy Cross professional community, Debora Cain, RNC is the deserving recipient of the 2007 Louise Gazzara Award.

For over twenty years, Debora has portrayed a positive attitude and team approach with a calm, non-obtrusive manner. She has worked well with students, staff, and other members of the college community.

In her current position as Nursing Coordinator, Debora's daily contributions are many:

- Is dedicated to the work at hand each and every day
- Manages the staff of registered nurses
- Provides nursing assessment and care of students
- Assists the Director in maintaining the standards of AAAHC
- Is skilled in computer work, including Web site maintenance, graphic arts, database & satisfaction surveys
- Oversees and inventories medical supplies and medications

A prime candidate for this award, Debora has always put the needs of students first. She has been a mentor to many, a member of several advisory boards and associations, and through it all, takes pride in her work and never, ever falter.

In the best spirit of CHAND and the New England College Health Association, we are pleased to award Debora Cain the 2007 Louise Gazzara Award.
