

Membership at a Glance... American College Health Association

AS AN INDIVIDUAL MEMBER, YOU RECEIVE THESE BASE BENEFITS*	INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS
Free Publications
• Subscription to our quarterly Action newsletter, containing articles and updates about college health	Free
• Subscription to the Journal of American College Health , the only scholarly publication devoted entirely to college students' health	Free ($93 value)
• Access to JACH Online Archive – search for and download past articles at no charge	Free
Discount on Publications
• Our series of health information brochures (over 25 titles)	up to 25% off
• Publications to further your professional development	up to 35% off
Networking and Educational Opportunities
• Discounted registration fee for ACHA annual meetings , the college health event of the year	up to 35% off
• Participation in ACHA committees that do nationally significant work and develop policy guidelines on varied issues: advocacy; STIs; research; vaccine preventable diseases; alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs; HIPAA; ethics; campus violence; student health insurance	For members only
• Automatic membership in regional affiliates	Free
• Membership in a professional interest section of your choice and access to all sections' online newsletters	Free
• Access to the members-only area of our website, offering a searchable membership directory, section communications, bulletin boards, comments/surveys, and other networking services	For members only
• Notification via blast email of important college health and association information	For members only
• Discounted fee for ACHA's Online CE programs	up to 50% off
• Occasional discounts on industry events conducted by other organizations (i.e., webinars, meetings, and more)	Reduced costs
Other Benefits
• Opportunity to apply for funding, grants, and monetary prizes from American College Health Foundation	For members only

AS AN INSTITUTIONAL MEMBER, YOU RECEIVE THE BENEFITS ABOVE PLUS THESE ADDITIONAL BENEFITS*	INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERS
Free and Discounted Individual Memberships
• Two individual memberships, one for a Representative Member of your Institution (RMI) and one for a Student Representative Member of your Institution (SRMI)	$270 value
• Discounted additional individual memberships for your staff members	$30 savings on each
Group Discount at the Annual Meeting
• For every three regular member or nonmember full conference registrations, member institutions will receive one additional regular member full conference registration at half price or one free student registration .	(savings up to $270)
• For every six regular member or nonmember full conference registrations, member institutions will receive one additional free regular member full conference registration or two free student registrations .	(savings up to $540)
Additional Free Publications
• Copy of the invaluable publication Vision Into Action: Tools for Professional and Program Development Based on the Standards of Practice for Health Promotion in Higher Education	Free ($70 value)
Highest Discount on Publications
• Our series of health information brochures (over 25 titles)	up to 70% off
• Publications to further the development of your college health program	Free
Discounts on Surveys, Data, and Resources
• Participation in and data from the ACHA-National College Health Assessment , which you can use to prioritize your students' health issues	Reduced costs
• Participation in and data from the Benchmarking Datashare Surveys , which you can use to compare your health program nationally	Reduced costs
• Consultation services that provides an objective professional assessment of your student health service for a discounted fee	Reduced costs
• Data from the 2010-2011 College Health Salary and Staffing Survey , which you can use to compare and review salary and staffing patterns, categorized by specific categories of health services personnel, and the type, size, location, and Carnegie classification of institutions (publication of the survey report expected summer 2011)	Reduced costs
Other Benefits
• Free selected supplemental resource materials to support your outreach programs	Special access
• Applications for continuing education credits and contact hours for staff	Special access
• A vote in the Assembly of Representatives to shape the governance of the association	Institutional Representative's privilege