-we have added "belonging" to our DEI initiatives -changed a general socialization spot to a multicultural center and adding more spaces for specific groups to go and hopefully feel safe (LGBTQ+) room - res life is adding more communities within res halls (for transfers, writers, medical majors, etc)

have sessions available or offered at varying times on topics listed so they are not at "conflicting" times with other sessions-- maybe strive to incorporate a "holistic" perspective on topics

I think there's always interest in skills based opportunities. At NYSCHA in 2018 they had a wound program that was widely attended. A physical assessment/or skills based pre-conference option for staff nurses would be incredible.

Make sessions available for watching at a later date.

I am at a state school with no training funds. Free and virtual has been a blessing that came out of covid, so that all staff could attend.
